Judges Mc Whorter, Brannen and Euglish Arrived Last Night-This is Judge McWhorter's First Sitting in Wheeling. Sketch of the Latest Addition to West

This morning in the chamber of the first branch of council, in the city building, the June term of the West opens. The docket is comparatively a opens. The docket is comparatively a small one, so that it naturally follows that the term will not be lengthy.

Last evening Judges McWhorter, Brannon and English had arrived in the city, together with Cierk O. S. Long, of Charleston. It was expected that Judge Dent would arrive this morning. This is Judge McWhorter's first appearance on the supreme bench in Wheeling. It will be remembered that he was the successful candidate at the polis last November, defeating the brilliant John H. Holt, the young Huntington attorney, who run on the Democratic ticket, Judge McWhorter's first official act was to swear in Governor George W. Atkinson last March.

H. C. McWhorter has been a resident f what is now ...est Virginia since of what is now est Virginia since 1841, and since 1865 has resided in Charleston, where he has been a leader at the har. In 1869-79 he was prosecuting attorney of Kanawha county. He was a member of the legislature from Roane county-in 1865 and from Kanawha in 1866, 67 and '68, and at the session of '68 was speaker of the house of diglegates. Again in 1885 and '87 he was a member of the house of delegates from Kanawha county. In 1888 he was the Republican candidate for the supreme bench.

at Steubenville, an establishment that has not been in operation for several years. The fluures of the deal could not be learned, but it is thought the plant was secured at a very low price. Messrs, Garrett and Robinson will prepare to place the plant in operation as soon as possible, and expect to start up about the first of August.

Mr. Garrett is president of the Union Glass Company, of Martin's Ferry, and it is said that he will retire from that company when he assumes charge of the reorganized Humphrey. Mr. Robinson was formerly the secretary of the old Elson Glass Company, in Martin's Ferry, and as both have had extended experience in the glass business it is thought their new venture will prove successful.

WINDSOR-BREMER

Nuptials Occurred Last Evening-Both are Well Known Young People. Last night in the pariors of the resi-

lence of Rev. J. H. Littell, pastor of the United Presbyterian church, was solemnized the wedding of Mr. William M. Windsor and Miss Annie A. Bremer. There were no attendants, only the mmediate relatives of the happy couple being present. The ceremo performed at $1.20 o'clock by Rev Mr.
Littell, after which Mr. and Mrs. Windsor were driven to their newly furnished home, No. 1023 Market street. Here they were met by a number of intimate friends and relatives who showered them with beat wishes and congratulations. A sumptuous wedding repast was served, and at midnight the wedded pair left over the Baltimore & Ohio for Washington, Philadelphia, New York, and points east, and will be gone about ten days.

The bride is the pretty and accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bremer, of South Eoff street, and is a social favorite. The groom is a member of the Register's clerical force, and a host of friends join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Windsor many years of happy married life.

"The People" Want to Know what a Resolution Means.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer SIR:-Reading the proceedings of the ouncil committee on ordinances your issue of this date I observe that Mr. Hazlett offered a resolution re-stricting the Wheeling & Elm Grove stricting the Wheeling & Elm Grove railroad to five cent fares within city. I wonder if Mr. Harlett is not aware that the Wheeling & Elm Grove Company never charged more than five cents within the city. What then is the object of his resolution? Little by play dust thrown in the public eye. We were promised a five cent fare from the city to any point on the line of the road. Are we going to get it or are we to be put off with the Harlett resolution? The influence which a few pampered corporations seem to have overeriain members of the council is amazing. expressions of sorrow.

His allment was typhold pneumonia, and so strong was its attack Monday morning that he was supposed to have succumbed, and the bell of the Church of the Immaculate Concention, of which he was a devout member, was tolled. He rallied, though, soon after, and seemingly appeared to grow stronger, but Monday night and up until the time of his death he grew gradually weaker. He was forty-vine years of age, and surviving him are his widow, and three children: Lucy, Samuel and Stella.

age, and surviving him are his widow, and three children: Lucy, Samuel and Mr. Altmeyer had been in business in the Eighth ward for about eight years, and his uprightness of character and genial disposition endeared him to all classes of citizens. He was born in Buttler county. Pa., and spent many years of his youth in Steubenville, but was a resident of Wheeling for thirty-five years. Until the nailers' strike, his early occupation was that of a nailer in the Benwood call factory. In 1887, he became the senior partner of Altmeyer & Zimmerman, undertakers, doing business in Benwood. Two years later the firm dissolved, the deceased going into business in the Eighth ward, in the firm of Altmeyer & Meyer. Upon the dissolution a year or so later Mr. Altmeyer was in business for himself, commanding a large patronage.

The funeral will occur Friday morning. Services will be held at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, and interment takes place at Mr. Callvary cemetery. The funeral will be largely attended as the deceased was a member of many fraternal organizations, embracing the following: La Belle lodge No. 2. Shield of Honor, and its side order, the Grand Orient, Union Ruling, 23 Fraternal Mystic Circle and St. Alphonsus Society.
